Salisbury High School Building

It is with the deepest gratitude and appreciation that the students and faculty of the Boyden High School thank the citizens of Salisbury and the School Board of the Salisbury Public Schools for the magnificent new high school building. The wonderful structure seems as part of a dream—it hardly seems real for the students to study and prepare themselves for future life in such a marvelous place after having spent their former school days in buildings that cannot compare with the new one in any respect. The members of the student body and the members of the faculty are truly grateful for this wonderful institution and desire that the generous parents and members of the Board be informed of the fact.

FOREWORD

In compiling this, the sixth volume of the Echo, we have endeavored to portray as fairly as possible the happenings of our last year at dear old S. H. S. We have no doubt fallen very short of our mark, but if it serves now or in the future to kindle and keep burning, in the hearts of those to whom our Alma Mater is dearest, the friendships and ideals of our High School, then those who toiled over it will feel their reward fully realized.

The eight students whose names appear on this page are the charter members of the Salisbury High School chapter of the National Honor Society.

Eligibility to this society is based on four qualifications; namely, scholarship, character, service, and leadership. This means that the above students stand in the upper one-fourth of their respective classes in scholarship, and also, according to the opinion of the faculty have been outstanding leaders for the finest in character and for unselfish service during their four years in high school.

As its name implies this society is national in scope, there being chapters in practically every state. In all the schools where chapters have been granted, to be elected to membership in the National Honor Society is considered the greatest honor that can come to a student during his high school career.

To The Seniors

The golden days of childhood are nearly over; we have passed one of those last markers of youth—Graduation. But may we not look regretfully back and mourn our lost youth; rather let us keep the spirit of youth surging through our veins by looking forward and upward to an ever nobler life of service. If we must glance back at childhood may it be as though we were looking back at the beauty of a morning to receive fresh inspiration for the day. Let us keep the spirit of youth and the simplicity of youth. Let us drop the selfishness and irresponsibility of childhood.

EDNA AGNER

"Thou has metal enough in thee to kill care."

Entered '25; Latin Course; Member Athletic Association.

Although Edna has not been with us long, she has become a general favorite in our class. Edna never has hurt herself studying but she always manages to pass her work. She is frank, and friendly, and a regular good sport.

JONCYE AUSTIN

"The mildest manners and the gentlest heart."

Entered '22; Latin Course; Member Athletic Association.

Although Joneye did not come to us until '23, she has made a large number of friends, especially in the science section. Joneye is rather quiet but better off for as the old saying goes, "He who talks less, thinks more."

GILMER AYERS

"Have your convictions and stand firm."

Entered '21; Science Course; Orchestra '24, '25; Football '24, '25; Member Athletic Association.

Gilmer is a boy who can adapt himself to any condition. He is perfectly at ease performing on his violin, on the dance floor, on the football field, and in the classroom where studies never seem to worry him. He is full of life and is a good sport. We predict for him a glorious future.

EVELYN BEAVER

"She spake and all her words more or less Sounded in virtue and in gentleness."

Entered '24; Latin Course; Girls' Club '25, '26; Athletic Association '26; Girls' league '26.

Heyo! When you hear this every body knows that Evelyn and her sunny smile is coming. Because of her ability to do things, we are sure that she will make a great success in college and in life.

The Echo

DAVID E. BEAVER

"Speech is silver
But silence is gold."

Entered '24; Latin Course; Hi-Y '25, '26; Social Committee Hi-Y, '26; Football '24, '25; Manager Baseball '26; Letter Club '26; Member Athletic Association.

David's quiet and retiring nature has won for him a host of friends. He is not always quiet as one can see by glancing at the honors above. Dave should make a great success in college and be a good athlete.

SADIE BOSTIAN

"The lady is full of bounty.
Virtue, worth and qualities."

Entered '22; Latin Course; Girls' Athletic Association; Girls' Reserve '24, '25; Field Day '22.

Dear Old S. H. S. will lose an E student when Sadie leaves. Her report card is almost perfect. She is not such a book worm that she can't devote some of her time to other activities. Athletics claim a good sport in Sadie.

FRANK BROWN

"Pleasure and action make his hours seem short."

Entered '22; Latin Course; Marshall '25; Track '24, '25; Football '23, '24, '25; Hi-Y '24, '25, '26; Manager Track '25; Athletic Association '26; Pres. '26; Letter Club '24, '25, '26; V.-Pres. Class '25.

Frank is such a brilliant student that the very few who do not know him may think that he turns his whole attention to his books. He does not, by any means, however. Besides his outstanding records in all branches of athletics, he also engages in many other school activities, and is among the most popular members of the class.

CARL B. BROWN

"Bid me discourse, I will enchant your ears."

Entered '22; Latin Course; Hi-Y '24, '25, '26; Radio Club '26; Treasure; Asso-Editor Echo '26; Tennis Club '26; Athletic Association Member.

If you want a big noise see C. Brown. However he has sense and is a dandy good writer, too, when he shuts his mouth and uses his head. If you ever hear "blink! blank! blip!" coming down the hall don't be afraid—it's only Carl's iron heel. He's a good fellow and is always generous with his car.

The Echo

1926

MILDRED BROWN

"Not much talk—a great sweet silence."

Entered '22; Latin Course; Girls' Reserve '24, '25, '26; Orchestra '25, '26; Athletic Association '26; Volley Ball '26; Dramatic Club '26.

If you want a true friend go to Mildred. She is a reserved girl but you can tell by the above honors she is a good student. Mildred surely has a happy and successful future in store for her.

"Of sturdy worth her deeds best show."

Entered '22; Latin Course; Girls' Club '24, '25, '26; Echo Staff '26; Tennis Club '25, '26; Girls' Athletic Association '24 '25; Dramatic Club '26.

Virginia has done exceptionally well in high school, 218 would certainly not be as jolly if it were not for her end less supply of "wise cracks." Some college will get a studious yet all round good sport in Virginia.

RUTH CAIN

"Good humor is the clear blue sky of her soul."

Entered '22; Latin Course; Member Athletic Association.

Ruth altho one of the quietest members of our class is an all round girl. She is frank, friendly, and a regular sport. Ruth has a pleasing personality, and tho she does not make all "E's," she has won many friends in high school.

ROBERT BRAWLEY

"Exceeding wise, fair spoken and persuading."

Entered '22; Latin Course; HBY- '23, '24; Debating Club '26; Triangular Debates '25; Pres. Debating Club '26; Class Basket Ball '24, '25.

Imagine 218 without Bob. He is a good fellow and a good student. One can tell by glancing at the above honors he was outstanding in school. Our loss will be some college's gain.

The Echo

1926

MILTON COOPER

"A merry one,
Within the limit of becoming mirth,
I never spent an hour's talk withal."
Entered '23; Latin Course; Hi-Y '24, '25,
'26; President Radio Club '26.

Milton has made a good record in school. He has helped the class to pass away many a study period by his everlasting supply of jokes. Milton should make a great success in college.

EDITH CLARK

"Her voice was ever soft,
Centre and low; an excellent thing in woman."

Entered '22; Latin Course; Member Athletic Association; Girls' Club '24, '25, '26; Echo Staff '26; Girls' Council '26.

While Edith does not devote much time to Athletics, she is, nevertheless, a popular student. She is rather quiet, but this trait seems to have won for her a place in the hearts of all her associates.

RUBY CRESS

"And even her failings leaned to virtue's side."

Entered '22; Science Course; Athletic Association; Girls' Club '25, '26.

Ruby is a girl who is forever giggling. Yet with all her humor, she is loveable, has scores of friends, and manages to make excellent grades. We know that she will be successful in college and life.

PERRY CROWELL

"My heart is full of kindness."

Entered '21; Latin Course; Member Athletic Association.

Perry is a jolly good fellow. He has taken life easy in high school, but nevertheless, he has gotten through. We hope he will not find college any harder.

The Echo

1926

"Fit and fair, neat and sufficient."

Entered '22; Latin Course; Girl Reserves '24, '25, '26; Vice Pres. Reserves '25; Chairman Social Committee '26; Athletic Association '25, '26; Class Basket ball '26; Class Baseball '25; Class Volley Ball '26; Tennis Club '25; Marshall '25; Vice-Pres. Senior Class '26.

"Tom" is most always in a good humor, thoughtful of others, not easily provoked, but has an opinion of her own. These and other good qualities command our respect and admiration. Her worst habits are winking and blushing, but we don't mind these. She is popular with both boys and girls.

MARGARET DANIEL

"Is she not more than painting can express, or youthful poets' fancy when they love?"

Entered '22; Latin Course; Member Athletic Association; Girls' Club '24, '25, '26.

All the students like Margaret because she is always jolly; she is equally as popular with the faculty because she's so smart. Margaret has strong convictions and isn't afraid to say what she thinks. All of these characteristics go towards making her the general favorite that she is.

ELLA MAE DANIEL

"Sober, quiet, pensive, and demure, one of those friends you're always sure."

Entered '22; Latin Course; Member Athletic Association; Girls' Club '24, '25, '26; Echo Staff '26.

Ella Mae is an all round good sport, and as her list of honors shows, she goes out for everything. She not only makes good grades but also has a good time. The Echo staff will have a hard time trying to find a reporter to take Ella Mae's place next year.

GRACE DANIELS

"Rare in union of beauty and purity."

Entered '22; Latin Course; Girls' Reserve '24, '25, '26; Chairman Social Committee; President '26; Girls' Athletic Association '25, '26; Class Basketball '25; Class Volley Ball '26; Class Baseball '25; Dramatic Club '26; Tennis Club '25; Pres. Dramatic Club '26.

With ease Grace bears the many honors showered upon her. She's dependable for sound advice and thorough work, qualities the girls' reserve recognized when, taking advantage of her good nature, it twice made her president. She is probably our nearest attainment to the ideal high school girl.

The Echo

1926

MARGARET DEDMON

"Ah, quiet lass, there are but few,
Who know the treasure hid in thee."

Entered '25; Science Course; Member
Athletic Association.

Margaret's pleasant smile is a characteristic of hers which we all admire. Through her lovable disposition and good work, she has become a favorite with both students and faculty.

ALLEN DOBY

"Thou art truly a most worthy actor."

Entered '22; Latin Course; Hi-Y '24, '25, '26; Boy Scouts '24, '26; Athletic Association Member; Class Basketball '26; Vice-Pres. Hi-Y '26.

Here's to our star scholar! Allen always has his paper finished before the rest of the class is half through. He always gets E's on his work too. Though he is a little bashful around girls, he is liked by all.

MARCUS FISHER

"One who never turned back, but marched breast forward,
Never doubted clouds would break."

Entered '21; Latin Course; Member Athletic Association; Track '24, '25; Hi-Y '23, '24, '25.

"Marc" doesn't stand out as an scholar, but you should see him run. He is constantly causing giggles from the girls. Ask them why. Yet for all his love of talking we know that "Marc" will be welcomed for his good naturedness any where he goes.

GEORGE FISHER

"We have crossed the bay the ocean lies before us."

Entered '21; Science Course; Hi-Y '22, '23, '24; Tennis Club '25.

A good boy and all that—is George Fisher. George would much rather day-dream than study, but that doesn't lower him at all in the eyes of his fellow students. He is a popular member of the class and is the source of much fun and hilarity. What would S. H. S. be without George?

The Echo

1926

JAMES FLETCHER

"Things are not what they seem."

Entered '22; Latin Course; Hi-Y '24, '25, '26; Chr. Membership Committee '25; Football '24, '25; Basketball '24, '25; Track '25; Letter Club '26.

From his youth up Jim has listened religiously to the "Vox populi," and can always give straight tips as to which way the wind blows. He is a gentleman of public importance carrying enthusiasm and argument wherever he goes. He is the official objector, but is an all round good sport.

FRED FLOYD

"My mind to me a kingdom is."

Entered '22; Science Course; Football '22, '23, '24, '25; Basketball '23, '24, '25, '26; Captain Basketball '25; Manager Football '25; Track Team '25, '26; Manager Track '26; Vice-Pres. Athletic Association '26; Vice-Pres. Hi-Y '25; Member Athletic Association; Pres. Junior Class '25.

"Big Boy" is probably the best known figure that walks up and down our halls. A kind soul, giant in stature—he has been the moving spirit of our teams ever since he has been with us. Four years of varsity football and basketball, with a little track thrown in, speak for themselves. He well may live up to the title of best athlete.

JAMES GOODMAN

"Who does his task from day to day, and meets whatever comes his way."

Entered 1921; Science Course; Football '23, '24; Pres. of Room 217 Student Participation '26; Mgr. Editor Echo '26; Asst. Business Mgr. Echo '25; Dramatic Club '26.

Jim is always eager to do his part in everything that is undertaken in school. His determined attitude and his eagerness in putting things across have gained for him many friends, besides a position on the Echo staff. He is a likeable young man and must surely succeed in life.

ROBERT GOODMAN

"I sit by, I remain faithful."

Entered '21; Latin Course; Member Hi-Y '23, '24; Football '25.

"Bob" is a solid fellow who could be a star pupil if he would only try. Geometry must be his favorite subject for he is always ready to put forth theorems that no one has ever dreamed of. This year he has proven himself of equal value on the gridiron.

The Echo

1926

CRAWSON GWIN

"A golden silence is the truest friend."
Entered '22; Latin Course; Member Athletic Association.

Crawson is a good sport and a general favorite. He's one of our smallest students, but this doesn't mean he isn't a good scholar. Our French class wouldn't have been as interesting without him. We feel sure he is going to be successful in life.

BEULAH GRAHAM

"Exhausting thoughts, and hiving wisdom with each studious year."

Entered '22; Science Course; Member Student Council '26; Girls' League '26; Room Cashier '26; Athletic Association '26.

Beulah is popular with everyone, especially the boys. Although she looks bashful, she is full of fun and is always ready to join in everything. We hate to see her leave S. H. S. but with her goes our best wishes for her success.

JESSIE GRIFFIN

"Knowledge comes, but wisdom lingers."
Entered '22; Latin Course; Girls' Reserves '25, '26; Member Athletic Association; Treasurer Girl Reserves '26; Girl League '25.

Jessie is the kind of a girl who works hard and reaps much benefit from her labor. She never has much to say, but when she does talk she gives her hearers something interesting to think about.

THELMA GWYNN

"The heart to conceive, the understanding to direct, and the hand to execute."
Entered '22; Latin Course; Girls' Club '23, '24, '25, '26; Girls Athletic Association; President Girls' Athletic Association; Captain Basketball '26; Sport Editor Echo '26; Basketball '25, '26; Baseball '26; Tennis Club '25.

This attractive lassie is one of our star girl athletes. She has always put all her strength into the high school games and we feel sure that her grit and determination will win success for her in the game of life. Thelma is always in a good humor and is the hard working sport editor of our school paper.

The Echo

PHEOBE HALL

"If I am your friend there is nothing too much for me to do."

Entered '24; Science Course; News Reporter '25; Girls' League '26; Girls' Glee Club '26; Dramatic Club '26; Girls' Athletic Association '26; Handicraft Club '26.

Pheobe is among our smartest students. She is always ready to answer questions and makes good grades. Although she is quiet, she has a host of friends who wish her much success in her college course.

LUCILLE HARTMAN

"My heart is full of kindness."

Entered '21; Science Course; Athletic Association '21, '22, '26; Girls' Club '23, '25, '26.

If Lucille was as interested in her lessons as she is in a certain Sophomore her report would be all E's. As it is, she gets by with fairly good grades. We wish you much luck at college, "Luke."

ROBERTA HERRINGTON

"She is pretty to walk with,
And witty to talk with.
And pleasant too, to think on."

Entered '22; Latin Course; Girls' Athletic Association; Girls' Club '23, '24, '25, '26; Room Treasurer '25; School News Reporter '25; V-President Room '24; Dramatic Club '26; Girls' League '26.

Roberta is rightly one of the prettiest girls in Salisbury High. Besides being very pretty she has a pleasing voice which has delighted the students on many occasions. She takes part in various school activities and is an earnest worker in all of them. She is also very popular with certain seniors.

EVA HAUSER

"The shallows murmur, but the deeps are still."

Entered '21; Latin Course; Member Athletic Association.

Eva has many friends, and is liked by every one who knows her. She may be small in stature, but she is mighty in words. The school will certainly miss her next year.

The Echo

1926

HOYLE HENDRIX

"Character is higher than intellect. A great soul will be strong to live, as well as to think."

Entered '24; Science Course; Debating club; Reporter Debating Club.

Hoyle is sober and quiet—but he firmly resolves to be a preacher. He is a good student and Salisbury High School will miss his good nature and seriousness.

MARGARET HUDSON

"I know that you have a gentle, noble temper,

A soul as even as a calm."

Entered '22; Latin Course; Girls' Reserves '24, '25, '26; Treasurer Junior Girl Reserves '25; Athletic Association '25, '26; Class Volley Ball and Basketball '26; Tennis Club '26; Girls League.

"Peg," as she is known by everyone, has a very pleasing personality. She is always on hand at the right time with her car, and is always willing to help a friend in need. N. C. C. W. will gain a splendid girl when it opens in the fall.

HAROLD ISENHOUR

"My spirit was up, my thoughts were full of hope."

Entered '22; Science Course; Member Athletic Association.

Although Harold is not very fond of studying, he is fond of girls. He is attractive and has a very pleasing personality as well as a "cute little Ford coupe" that the girls enjoy. His many friends wish him success in college.

MILDRED KESLER

"Most prudent of an excellent and unmatched wit and judgment."

Entered '22; Science Course; Member Athletic Association.

Mildred is always ready to answer questions and usually makes good grades. She is liked by all who know her, and we are sure that she will make a success in whatever she may do in her future life.

The Echo

1926

INEZ KESLER

When life flows along like a song;
But the woman worth while is the wo man who can smile,
When every thing goes dead wrong.

Entered '22; Latin Course; Girls' Club
'24, '25, '26; Girls' League '26; Dramatic Club '26; Athletic Association '26.

Inez has a pleasing personality and with this she has won many friends.
She takes life none too seriously, for she is always ready to have a good time. We know Inez will make a success of anything, and we wish her the best of luck throughout her life.

REUBEN LEONARD

"Of cheerful look, a pleasing eye, and a most noble carriage."

Entered '21; Science Course; Member
Athletic Association; Football '25, '26;
Member Letter Club.

"Rube" is one of the most popular students of the Senior class. He is known for the horns on his car and wherever you see him in his car you are sure to hear the honk of a trusty Klaxon. He has been one of the mainstays on the football team for several years.

DODD LINKER

"I like your silence; it the more shows of your wonder."

Entered '22; Latin Course; Hi-Y '24, '25,
'26; Football '25; Athletic Association;
Basketball '26; President Senior Class '26.

Julius Dodd is one of our star students.
When exam time comes, Dodd is usually at home enjoying a little vacation. We envy his ability to make high marks and also his ability to stand in with the feminine element of our school. We predict for this young man a brilliant college career.

HAROLD McCURDY

"If I cannot find a way, I will make one."
Entered '22; Latin Course; Hi-Y '24, '25,
'26; President '26; Marshall '25; Debating
Club '24, '25, '26; Editor Echo '26.

Harold is one of our most intelligent classmen, and also one of the most popular. He is rather serious at times, but we know that he's thinking deeply when we see him in this mood. He's a cartoonist of the first class. We are sure that a brilliant career is in store for Harold.

The Echo

1926

RALPH MULDER

Entered '22; Latin Course; Hi-Y '24, '25, '26; Debating Club '26; Football '25; Radio Club '26; Editor-in-Chief Annual '26; Member Athletic Association.

Hard work does not seem to flinch Ralph a bit. He is one of our most industrious boys, and is an outstanding member of 217. We are sure that Ralph will make a success of his future undertakings.

FRANK MORRIS

"Tis the silent who learn the most and live the longest."

Entered '22; Latin Course; Class Poet.

Frank is our poet. One look at the poetry column of our school paper will assure you of his poetic ability. He may seem quiet to his fellow students, but when he speaks, he is sure to say something worth listening to.

ELIZABETH MORRISON

"Leave silence to saints, I am but human."

Entered '22; Latin Course; Girl Reserves '24, '25, '26; Athletic Association '26; Class Basketball '26; Tennis Club '25; Dramatic Club '26.

Reading "Virgil" seems to be "pie" with "Liz." Not only in Latin, but also in all her studies, she averages high. Liz is very popular and should surely be a favorite at N. C. C. W.

GRACE MYERS

"When she will, she will, and you can depend on it."

Entered '25; Science Course; Girls' Athletic Association.

Grace is another one of our serious-minded girls, who is very popular among both boys and girls. She entered high school in '25, and since then has made good in her studies, especially Physics.

The Echo

ROBERT MURPHY

"For a man is by nothing so well betrayed as by his manner."

Entered '22; Latin Course; Hi-Y '26; Athletic Association; Tennis Club '25; Associate Editor Echo '26.

When it comes to being "the Shiek," we sure have "to hand it to Bob," and we don't mean maybe. Yet at the same time, Bob is a hard worker and has plenty of mentality; for this reason we feel sure that he will make a name for himself wherever he goes.

ISABEL NORMAN

"She packs her trouble in a box, sits on the lid, and smiles."

Entered '22; Science Course; Member Athletic Association; Girls' League; Girls' Reserves '24, '25, '26.

Isabel is the one Senior who holds up the dignity of our class. In turn she herself is held up as a model for the rest of us, but she's not all dignity. She's lots of fun when it's time for fun. She is willing to do her share and do it well. Isabel is a girl that can be depended on to do what she says she will.

ELIZABETH PEACOCK

"The most kindest of all—loves all, and highest ambition is to help all."

"Liz" is known as one of our most attractive girls, especially when the opinion of the boys is consulted. When a Hudson car with a Spencer license is seen parked in front of her house, we all know who it is. We are sending "Liz" to N. C. C. W. with the perfect assurance that she will win many friends and make good in her studies.

The Echo

1926

PAUL PLYLER

FRANCIS PRICE

"Good nature and good sense must ever join."

Entered '22; Latin Course; Hi-Y '24, '25, '26; Assistant Sport Editor Echo '26; Debating Club '26; Athletic Association.

"Duke" or "Gus" which ever you choose, is one of our wittiest and most popular boys. We congratulate him on the fact that he has not yet fallen for the feminine charms, but we feel sure that, with such a winning personality, he cannot remain immune.

BESSIE RANKIN

"A certain simplicity that makes everyone her friend."

Entered '22; Latin Course; Girl Reserves '24, '25, '26; Class Basketball '25; Athletic Association '25; Basketball '25; Girls' League '25; Marshall '25.

Bessie's quiet nature and pleasing personality have won for her many friends. She is an honest-to-goodness worker and a fine student in every way. We feel sure that "Bess" will be crowned with success in all of life's undertakings.

LUCILLE RANKIN

"To see her is to love her."

Entered '22; Latin Course; Girls' Reserves '24, '25, '26; Girls' League '26; Athletic Association '26.

Lucille, though rarely ever seen talking, is a good student and through her quiet nature, has won many friends. She enters heartily into everything she undertakes, for which reasons we feel sure that the problems of life will be no task for her.

ARTHUR REYNOLDS

"Our thoughts and our conduct are our own."

Entered '22; Latin Course; Hi-Y '24, '25, '26; Football '24, '25; Basketball '24, '25, '26; Tennis Club '25, '26; Marshall '25.

"Otto" is one of our careless fellows, and yet, he is a good all round sport. In his studies he does very well, considering the amount of time he spends in preparation. We are sure that "Otto" will be quite an addition to some college, and that he will make a host of friends wherever he goes.

LAMAR RODGERS

"As merry as the day is long."

Entered '21; Science Course; Member Athletic Association.

Buck is one of the most popular members of our class. Whenever you hear someone laughing you may be sure he is near. He's not a "ladies' man" but a great favorite with all the girls as well as the boys. He says he's going to build up Duke's reputation by going there next year. Here's hoping he will make as big a hit with the faculty there as he did at S. H. S.

FLORENCE RUFTY

"Her wavy hand on the ivory keys
Strayed in a fitful fantasy
Like the silver gleam when the popular trees
Rustle their pale leaves listlessly."

Entered '22; Science Course; Girls' Athletic Association.

Playing the piano seems to be one of Florence's most outstanding virtues. She is very quiet and has a pleasing nature, which makes her a girl to be loved by every one.

ELIZABETH ROSEMAN

"Thy modesty is a candle to thy merit."

Entered '22; Latin Course; Girls' Reserves '24, '25, '26; Glee Club '26; Dramatic Club '26; Girls' League '26; Athletic Association; Class Basketball '25, '26; Volley Ball '26; Chairman Publicity Committee Girls' League; Member Girls' Council.

Elizabeth's sweet personality and attractive, pleasing ways have won for her a host of friends. She is far from lacking in mental ability, and we predict for her much success in college and in later life.

The Echo

EDGAR SAFRIT

"Physical statue measures not the brain!"

Entered '22; Latin Course; Athletic club; Member of Class Baseball Team in '22; Baseball '26.

Edgar is a good student, as well as a good sport. He has a pleasing personality, and has friends throughout the whole school.

GEORGE SHAVER

"Hang sorrow! Care will kill a cat, and therefore let's be merry."

Entered '21; Science Course; Orchestra '26; Letter Club '26; Football '24, '25; Athletic Association.

George likes old S. H. S. very much, a fact shown by his reluctance to leave. George may fail to prepare his lessons, but he is a keen thinker and his mathematical ability is well above the average. He has also gone out for athletics; is quiet apt in tennis; and is a member of the football varsity.

THERESA SHIVELY

"Her past has not been words, but deeds."

Entered '23; Science Course; Member Athletic Association.

She is a rather quiet person but her pensiveness disappears when you ruffle her. Ask Buck Rodgers. She is friendly and full of fun but frank and sincere. Her motto seems to be "Work while you work and play while you play." She mixes pleasure along with serious things and her grades certainly are a credit to S. H. S.

VIRGINIA SHUPING

"Gentle of speech, beneficent of mind."

Entered '22; Latin Course; Girls' Reserves '24, '25, '26; Chairman Social Committee '24; V.-President Senior Girls' Club '26; Girls' Athletic Association '24, '25, '26; Glee Club '26; Dramatic Club '26; Girls' League '26.

Just because she doesn't say any more about herself than she does, you might think Virginia doesn't do anything here in high school. But she does! Whenever you want a hard worker and one who is very conscientious just call on Virginia. She is always ready to do her part and more.

The Echo

SARA SMITH

"Large was her bounty, and her soul sincere."

Entered '23; Latin Course; President Girls' League '26; Girls' Reserve '25, '26; Chairman Program Committee '26; Athletic Association '26; Girls' Glee Club '26; Orchestra '26; Dramatic Club '26.

"Sally" is a good sport at all times and is one of the most attractive members of the class of '26. She's plenty good when it comes to tickling the ivories, and helps the high school orchestra greatly. Ask Sally anything concerning love because she has had much experience in that art.

RUTH SMITH

"A smile for all, a greeting glad,
A loveable, jolly way she has."

Entered '22; Science Course; Member Girls' Club '26; Girls' Council '26; Junior Marshall '25; Advertising Manager Echo '26; Member Athletic Association.

If it had not been for Ruth's dramatic ability, where would our high school plays have gone? We wouldn't ever have had any! When she is acting, she puts her whole self into it. Just so in her school life she has given her best and we see her success as a result.

PHILIP SOWERS

"How very small the very great are."

Entered '22; Latin Course; Hi-Y '25, '26; Tennis Club; Class Basketball; Echo Staff; Member Athletic Association.

Philip is a member of the distinguished 218 group, but he doesn't let this make him snobbish. He is a jolly good sport and will always go with the crowd. Though he thinks a lot of a certain little Sophomore, he still finds time to meditate a bit over his favorite author, Virgil. We wish for him a great success in college and later life.

LEO SWICEGOOD

"The mind is the standard of the man."

Entered '24; Latin Course; Radio Club '26; Dramatic Club '26.

"Leo" is another one of our hard workers, and he seems to enjoy difficult labor. Give him a harmonica and he will entertain you splendidly. We know because we've heard him. It pleases us to say that we believe "Leo" will succeed in whatever he undertakes.

The Echo

OTTO TALBERT

"A kinder friend treads not the earth."

Football '22, '23, '24, '25; Vice President Debating Club '25; Letter Club '22, '23, '24, '25; Wrestling Team '25, Captain; Hi-Y '22, '23.

Otto is the little fellow of the class. But for his ready wit and jolly nature, many a class would be incomparably dull. We feel that he is extraordinarily smart, since he has managed to stay for seven years. It takes a genius to do that! With such amiable qualities as he has, we feel certain he will make a huge success in life.

MARTHA TICHENOR

"Exhausting thought, and living wisdom with each studious year."

Entered '21; Science Course; Girls' Athletic Association '21, '22, '23, '24, '25, '26; Girls' Club '22, '26; Secretary Girls' Club '25, '26; Debating Club '21, '22, '26; Triangular Debate '24, '25; Ass't Circulation Manager Echo '26; Class Basketball '24, '25; Class Baseball '24, '25; Tennis Team '24, '25; Dramatic Club '26.

Martha is one of the most attractive members of the Senior class. She has a certain individuality and ability to make friends easily. Her valuable speech has won many subscribers to the Echo, and it is certain that the persuasive element of the high school will suffer a severe loss when Martha leaves.

MARGIE TREXLER

"Her air, her smile, her notions told of womanly completeness."

Entered '22; Girls' Club '22, '23; Member Athletic Association; Girls' League '26.

Margie is one of the most talkative and one of the jolliest members of our class. No matter how blue everyone else may be, Margie is always smiling. A happy future is certainly in store for her.

HELEN TREXLER

"Not too serious, not too gay; but a jolly good fellow in every way."

Entered '22; Latin Course; Girls' League '26; Girls' Glee Club '26.

Helen is one of the quietest members of our class, but this does not keep her from having a lot of friends. We are sorry to see Helen leave S. H. S. but we wish her the best of success throughout her life.

The Echo

1926

LOY D. THOMPSON

"Ever changing, ever popular."

Entered '24; Science Course; Orchestra '25; Football '25; Letter Club '25; Dramatic Club '26.

Though Loy takes affairs as they are, and doesn't attach much importance to them, he is a hard worker under the surface, and his report card shows a well balanced average. He has a great deal of individuality and is always popular with the ladies.

JULIE WOLFE

"As full of spirit as the month of May." Entered '22; Science Course; Chief Marshall '25; Treasurer Junior Class '25; Secretary Senior Class '26; President Sophomore and Junior Girls' Club '24; Member Girls' Club '24, '25, '26; Press Reporter Sophomore Class '24; Press Reporter Girls' Athletic Association '26; Member Athletic Association '26; President Girls' Council '25; Assistant to Business Staff Echo '26.

Julie is a jolly good friend to all. She is a steady worker and has taken part in many class activities. It is sure that the college which gets her will be helped. Yet the college's gain will be Salishury's loss.

JAMES WARLICK

"Sweet personality, full of rascality." Entered '22; Latin Course; HI-Y '25, '26; Tennis Club; Associate Editor Echo '26; Member Athletic Association.

Jim is an active member of the Echo staff, and quick to do his duty. He is becoming quite a shiek, but hasn't allowed this to interfere with his lessons yet. His report shows nothing but E's, and we feel that Catawba will be proud of him next year.

FLETA WINECOFF

"No storm ever ruffled the course of her life."

Entered '22; Latin Course; Girls' Club '24, '25, '26; Athletic Association '24, '25, '26; Tennis Club '25.

If all the school was as interested in athletics as Fleta is, we would have to encourage some of them to stay at home instead of asking them to come to the games. Fleta is an all round good sport, and we know that she will make a success in her future life.

FANNIE WALLACE

"Justice vindicates and wisdom guides."

Entered '22; Latin Course; Girl Reserves '24, '25, '26; Athletic Association '23, '24, '25, '26; Secretary Girl Reserves '25; Basketball '26; Class Basketball and Baseball '25, '26; Dramatics '26; Tennis Club '25, '26.

Fannie is popular with both boys and girls. We know that the college that she attends will never lack pep and action. According to Miss Morris, Fannie knows plenty of Latin, and she deserves those high marks that she gets on it.

LOUIE WATKINS

"I would rather be than seem to be."

Entered '22; Latin Course; Hi-Y '24, '25, '26; Treasurer Hi-Y '23; V.-President '24; Football '24, '25; Athletic Association; Letter Club '25; Circulation Manager Echo '26; Marshall '25.

Louie Watkins is the "clowning" glory of the Senior class. We rarely see him without a smile, and we rarely see him without smiling. He is ever ready to pull a wise crack and has an inexhaustible supply of them. While he is quite popular with the ladies, he conceals his attraction on one in his own neighborhood. Sh! it's a secret!

MARIE YOUNTZ

"We have learned to do by doing."

Entered '22; Latin Course; Girls' Reserve '24, '25, '26; Girls League '25, '26; Girls' Athletic Association '25, '26.

Although Marie is one of our smartest students, she is by no means a bookworm. She is always ready to laugh at jokes and is very good-natured. Her eyes are her crowning glory, and she is a winker of no mean ability.

Senior Class History

In September 1922 the road to knowledge lead one hundred and sixty grammar school boys and girls to another stepping stone, their first year in high school. All were very shy and overawed by the fact that they had six teachers instead of one.

Seventy-nine students entered the Science department and found that they must to l bravely to meet the coming years. The eighty-one Latin students also realized their responsibility and settled down to master that terrible study.

The class was composed of five sections, three of which were in the "barn," an old house standing next to the school and being used that year for classrooms. On cold days the Barn students sitting near the open fire nearly burned to death while the rest nearly froze to death. The other two classes were in the main building so they had no trouble with the heating system.

On field day the Freshman girls showed what they could do by taking first place in every contest.

After nine months of similar trials and experiences, the Freshman class dispersed for the summer vacation.

The next September, 1923, one hundred and forty reached the second stepping-stone of high school life, the Sophomore year, feeling very grown up and studious.

The girls lost no time in forming a girls' club while the boys organized a Sophomore Hi-Y. These two organizations have done much for the class in character building.

Harold McCurdy was chosen for a member of the debating team and with his partner won from Statesville. As both of the Salisbury teams won, Harold again debated in Chapel Hill. Unfortunately the debating team lost out there.

Although all were glad to have the "barn" replaced by a one story brick wing, the former had become by this time a good old friend.

The following September, 1924, brought the class to the third stepping-stone, the Junior year. Since it was well on the way to Seniorhood all set to work diligently.

During the year the group was very sorry to give up to High Point its superintendent, Mr. Andrews, but it felt and still feels that the school was most fortunate in securing Mr. Phillips for the new superintendent.

For the second time the class took part in the Triangular Debate. The two members that represented the Juniors were Martha Tichenor and Harold McCurdy. Although the team did not win they received great training along this line.

The reception given to the Seniors by the Juniors was a delightful and a most enjoyable social affair. In addition to this, the Junior Girl Reserves gave the Senior Girl Reserves a wonderful banquet.

The Echo

1926

This same year the class gave three members to the girls' basketball squad. On the football squad there were eight Juniors; on the boys' basketball squad four; on the baseball squad one. Track a new sport in the high school attracted three Juniors.

The honor of beginning such a plan of cooperation as student participation belongs to 10A. The 10C students soon followed the lead and also established student participation in their room. Although the plan was not a great success it was a good beginning, and it set a good example for the incoming classes.

The student body and particularly the Junior class felt a great loss at this time in the death of Dr. Harpham, head of the Science department. Although she was better known to the Science pupils than to the Latin students, still she was the friend of all.

The last step in high school was taken when the class returned in September, 1925. Twenty failed to make the final step but one hundred achieved their purpose in becoming great and dignified Seniors. By this time the class had dwindled down to three home rooms, 216, 217, 218. The officers for the fourth year were as follows: Dodd Linker, President; Tommy Davis, Vice-President; Julie Wolfe, Secretary; Paul Plyler, Treasurer.

For the first time in the history of the Salisbury High School a newspaper was published and was sponsored by the seniors, even though the class did not like the idea at first. Now, however, all realize the importance of the paper and appreciate it. It is hoped that the class of '27 will make an even bigger success of it.

The class of 1926 is proud to be the first to graduate from the new High School; however it is sorry that it did not get into the building earlier in order to enjoy the conveniences and beauty.

The last step in high school has been taken, tasks here have been finished and the open road calls insistently. However the class of 1926 will always remember its happy times here and will endeavor to live up to the high standards taught at dear old S. H. S.

Senior Class Prophecy

Albany, New York,
June 1, 1936.

Teachers and Students of Boyden High School,
Salisbury, N. C.

Dear Old Friends:

I have just completed a long and very interesting trip during which I met many of my old friends of the Class of '26. Knowing that you would be interested in some of the old graduates I am writing to let you know what your old friends are now doing.

Leaving Albany I traveled down to New York. In New York I took in some high class entertainment. At the Hippodrome, I found Otto Talbert the leading acrobat on the program. In the second act, who should be the leading comedian but my old friend Reuben Leonard? The next night in Jersey City I met Ruth Smith who told me that she was making her debut as a dancer that night. She also said that she was on the same bill with Roberta Herrington. Roberta, she said, was achieving success and had already sung herself into the hearts of her audiences.

My next stop was in Philadelphia where I met Louie Watkins and Adelaide Julian. Louie, following his pa, was selling American Art Calendars, and Adelaide was Staff Correspondent to the Ledger.

From Philadelphia I went to Washington. Taking a look at Congress in action I found Francis Price, Republican, and Marcus Fisher, Socialist, engaged in a terrible debate. While I was looking around for a place to relieve my hunger, who should I find but Elizabeth Peacock, Virginia Burt, Margaret Hudson and Tommy Davis engaged in running a classy little eat shop. While I was eating they told me that Frank Brown and Bob Brawley had left the day before for England where they were to represent Uncle Sam.

A short stop in Richmond revealed to me that Milton Cooper was behind the bars selling railroad tickets. Milton told me that Dave Beaver was coaching at Hampden-Sidney and was turning out the best teams in the history of the institution. He also said that Paul Plyler and James Goodman were running the Richmond "Sun."

Gazing out the window as the train stopped at Spencer I saw Edgar Safritz bossing a bunch of men around. I got off and found that Ed was yard master. Ed told me that Allen Doby was a professor at Carolina and that Margaret Daniel was a gym teacher at Salem. Asking for more of my former classmates, I found that Thelma Gwynn was directress of Athletics at N. C. C. W. and that Hoyle Hendrix was doing a thriving business in the truck farm line.

Not being able to stop in Salisbury I went on to Charlotte where, to my great surprise, I found Julie Wolfe teaching in the Charlotte High School. Julie said that Grace Daniels was the secretary of the Y. W. C. A. Walking on up the street I met Phoebe Hall. She told me that she and Sadie Bostian were the county demonstrators in Mecklenburg. Phoebe also said that Isabel Norman had just returned from Africa where she had been doing some fine missionary work. Further down the street two familiar names above a door met my eyes. Going inside I found Arthur Reynolds and James Warlick giving lessons in the "Art of Charming The Ladies." Art told me that Phillip Sowers was living on his income. Dodd Linker was also taking things easy since he had cleaned up a huge sum of money in the real estate business. Ella Mae Daniels had sold her secrets of charming the men and was living at ease in Salisbury.

I made my next stop in Columbia. There I found Elizabeth Morrison and Fannie Wallace running the neatest hat shop in town. Liz told me to look one block up the street. Following her directions I found Fred Floyd directing traffic which he was doing without a hitch. "Big Boy" informed me that Bob Miller was coaching football at the University and that Lamar Rodgers had made himself famous with his chain of filling stations. The chain reached from coast to coast. Picking up a newspaper a familiar face met my eye. It was the picture of the new city editor of the paper, and was an exact reproduction of Ralph Mulder. Going into the paper office to congratulate Mr. Mulder, I found Edith Clarke behind the desk of the Social Editor.

Moving on to Charleston I found Harold Isenhour owner of a young men's clothing shop. Harold told me that three of our old classmates were at that time entertaining the city: George Fisher was showing the town how to "Charleston." Mildren Brown and Florence Ruffy were giving a recital in the city that night. Harold and I took in the recital and found Elizabeth Roseman giving the artists the once over before she offered them a Chautauqua contract. Elizabeth said that she had just signed Martha Tichenor for a lecture course on the platform. We saw Jessie Griffin as we were leaving the theatre. Jessie was teaching school in Winssboro. She told us that Virginia Shuping was the student "Y" secretary at Converse College and that Sara Smith and Margaret Dedmond were teaching music at the said institution.

Stopping at Savannah I found Robert Goodman about to put to sea as the skipper of the "Nancy." Bob, they told me, was the hardest boiled skipper in the port. While away sometime I sauntered into a hotel and there found that Theresa Shively was employed as day clerk. Theresa told me that Margie Trexler, Beulah Graham, and Joncye Austin were the head masters of the T. G. & A. Business College.

From Savannah I traveled on to Tampa, Florida, where I found George Shaver, Gilmer Ayres, Loy Thompson and Evelyn Beaver. George told me that they were hurting the world when it came to jazz orchestras. Evelyn let me know that Lucille and Bessie Rankin were operating "The Twin." "The Twin" turned out to be a nifty little hotel. Stopping in this hotel I found Marie Yountz, a prospective young authoress. A few minutes later I walked Evelyn McQuage. Evelyn was a traveling sales lady of note. In talking with her I found that Chloe Cook was in the boarding house business and that she had a long string of them. They were situated in most of the large towns of North Carolina. Having business at the post office I turned my foot steps in its direction. Arriving there who should greet me but Helen Trexler, the post mistress of the said post office. Having attended to my affairs, I left for New Orleans. Getting off the train at New Orleans, I saw Robert Murphy. Of course I was curious to know what Bob was doing. He told me that he was looking for motion picture talent and that he had just "found" Inez Kesler and Elizabeth McLaughlin. He informed me that he would soon astound the world with his new "finds." Looking around I saw Ruth Cain and Eva Hauser. They imparted to me that they were running a curio shop and business was fine. I learned from these two that Grace Meyers and Ruby Cress were selling the best line of toilet articles that they had yet seen.

Making a long jump to San Francisco I learned that Lucille Hartman was the best baby specialist in the West. Lucille told me that Edna Agner was running her keen competition for the honor of the best specialist. Walking up to a drug store who should I meet but Perry Crowell, who was running the aforesaid store. Peck said that Fleta Winecoff and Geneva Albright had just sailed for China where they were going to make a study of the economical conditions of the country. He also informed me that Harold McCurdy was in the heart of South America searching for new and beautiful species of plant and animal life.

Making another long jump, this time to Chicago, I found Crowson Gwinn. Crowson was superintendent of transportation in and out of the Chicago yards. Crowson gave me the information concerning the last of my classmates. Leo Swicegood was a government chemist and Frank Morris was writing some wonderful poetry. Having found the last of my old friends I spent the night in peace and the next day returned home to write you this letter.

With good wishes to all and love to my Alma Mater,

I am,
James W. Fletcher.

Class Poem

Four years we've been in high school
Four years of joy and sorrow.
We've spent our time in planning—
In studying for to-morrow.

Under the high school banner—
The colors of black and gold,
There were sown in our minds ideals
That never shall grow old.

"No cheating" has been our motto—
Play the whole game clean and fair,
Then when you face life's problems
You will always meet them square.

We will not be long together—
We've reached the parting ways;
But we'll carry a memory with us
Of our happy high school days.

—Frank L. Morris, '26.

Class Song

Carry me back to dear old school days.
There's where our faithful hearts will ever long to be.
There's where our memory will fondly linger.
There's where our fancy will always love to stray.
There's where we labored so hard in our childhood,
Through happy days, under skies of blue and gray.
No place on earth do we love more sincerely,
Than this dear school where we learned to work and play.

CHORUS

Carry me back to dear old school days,
When we were so happy, so blithesome, and so gay.
Give us a mem'ry of joys left behind us.
That will be with us as long as we shall stay.

Classmates, now we have come together,
To bid a last farewell to scenes and friends so dear.
For now we part from our loved Alma Mater,
To which we're bound with many chords and ties.
Oh! far and wide be our paths in the future;
Varied and strange are the lives we must meet.
But through the years may we be remembered,
As loyal members of the class of twenty-six.

Junior Class

Junior Class History

The class of '27 as Juniors has shown its worth in scholarship, athletics, debating, and dramatics. Early in the year it selected a complete group of executives. Elwood Goodson was elected President; Joe McCall, Vice-President; Inez Hartley, Secretary; and James Floyd, Treasurer.

At mid-term many Juniors were denied the privilege of exams on at least part of their studies and several on all of them.

Our class is justly proud of the showing made in athletics by many of its members. James Floyd, captain of this year's basketball team, was also an outstanding player in football and track. Eddie Reeves, captain of the baseball team, was a spectacular forward in basketball. Roger Evans, better known as "Iron-Man," starred in football, basketball and baseball. Olney Brown and Elwood Goodson both played on the varsity baseball team.

The Junior class furnished three debaters in the triangular debate this year, these were Edna Tatum, Christine Hudson, and Samuel Wiley.

Some of the class have taken an active part in dramatics this year, and much talent has been shown along this line.

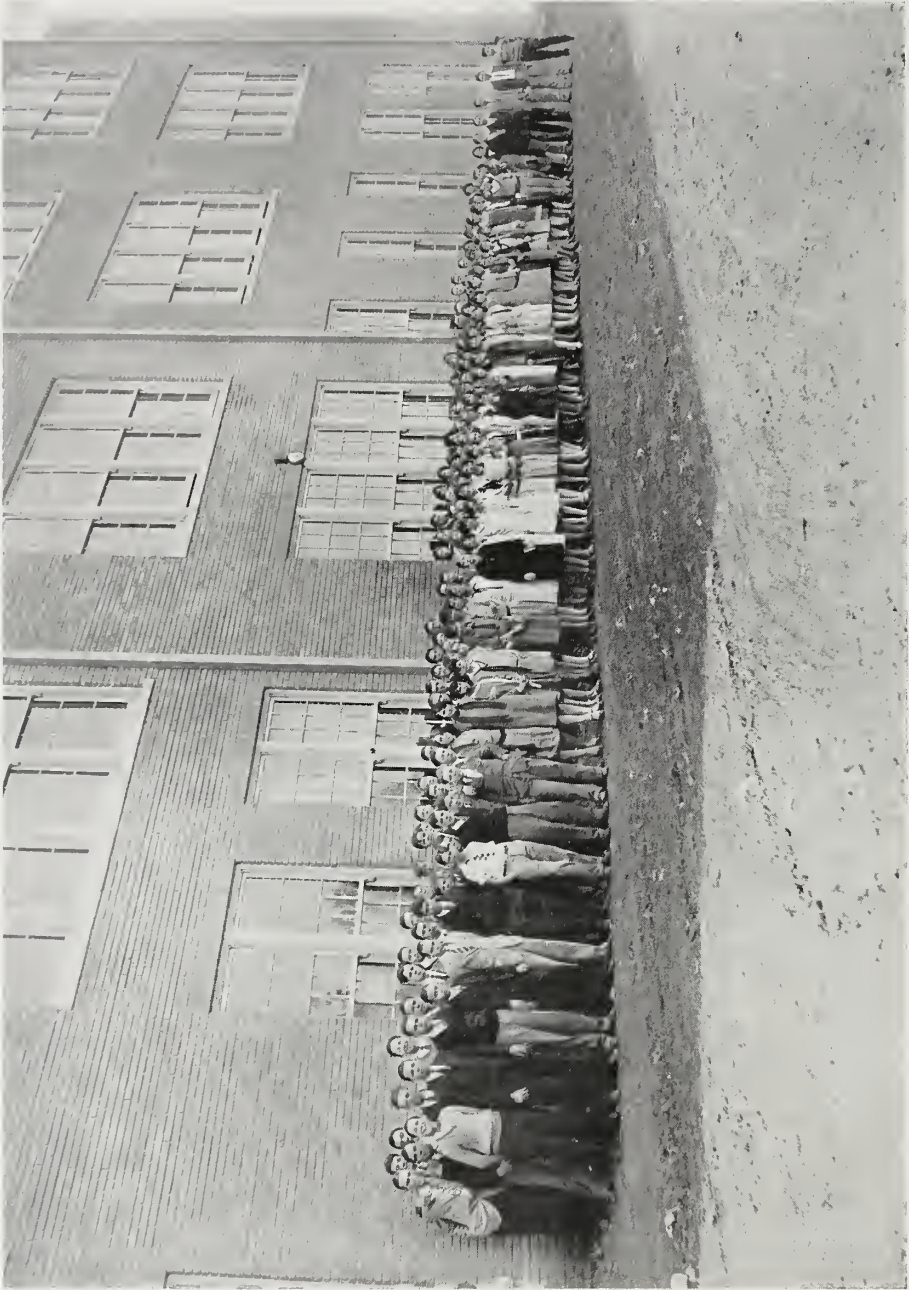

A few rooms have tried out student participation and have found it very satisfactory.

This participation in so many activities of school life gives hopes of a very successful year for the class of '27 as Seniors.

Girls' Council

"Not only be good but be good for something."

The girls' council is composed of a president, a secretary, and a member from each room, elected every semester. It meets often to discuss and suggest solutions for problems. This is a new organization started this year. It has been successful in its work so far, and it is hoped that it will be more so in the years following. The girls endeavor to hold up the highest standards of morals and conduct before the school. The following are girl councilors: Lucille Curlee, Mary Catherine West, Bunny Helms, Beatrice Jennings, Elizabeth Brown, Alice Fisher, Mildred Jones, Evelyn Jones, Hallie Lyerly, Alice Ennis, Bessie Kidd, Elizabeth Roseman, Margaret Dedmon, Isabel Norman, Grace Stewart, Ruth Lingle, Flora Harviel, Hazel Melton, Jessie Griffith, Theresa Shively, Katherine Morgan, Hallie Hartman, Grace Gorman, Margie Kluttz, Margaret Marsh, Louise Nussman, Mabel Gibson, Bernice Wilson, Nina Shuping, Ruth Daniel, Mildred Belt, Maxine Williams, Kathleen Small, Lottie Reid.

Girls' Reserve History

Much interest has been manifested this year in the four Girls' clubs. Fun, as well as the more serious line of work, has been featured in the meetings, which were interesting and educational.

There was an inspirational series of Sunday afternoon meetings, during the winter months, when the girls' time was spent profitably in listening to such speakers as Rev. Milne, Rev. Woods, Mrs. George Day, Miss Helen Terry, of Charlotte, Principal Garringer, of Charlotte, and Miss Francis Brandis.

An impressive meeting, one which has long been anticipated, was the recognition service, held in the new high school auditorium. At this time, new members were brought into the club by solemn initiation. Miss Helen Anderson, of Charlotte, was the speaker.

The White Christmas was in charge of the Seniors. After the usual beautiful music, readings, and offerings, the classes and the various organizations of the school gave resolutions to the white King. On the same day, an appreciative audience consisting of high school and college students saw an attractive play, "The Blue Flower," given by the Senior girls.

On Christmas eve, the members assembled at the Y. W. C. A. and went to various parts of the city singing the carols.

The Senior club during the year entertained for the football boys, had musicals, suppers, hikes, health talks, and a Valentine party. Miss Thompson was the capable advisor.

The Juniors, led by Miss Denny, made approximately $15.00 by serving chicken salad suppers. Their main work was the delightful banquet given in honor of the Seniors.

Miss Johnson was the leader of the Sophomore girls who sent boxes to the poor in India and had several parties, including a Valentine one and a Halloween one.

With Miss Cranford leading, the Freshmen dressed dolls for the Orphans' Home, had several hikes, and had an enjoyable Christmas entertainment.

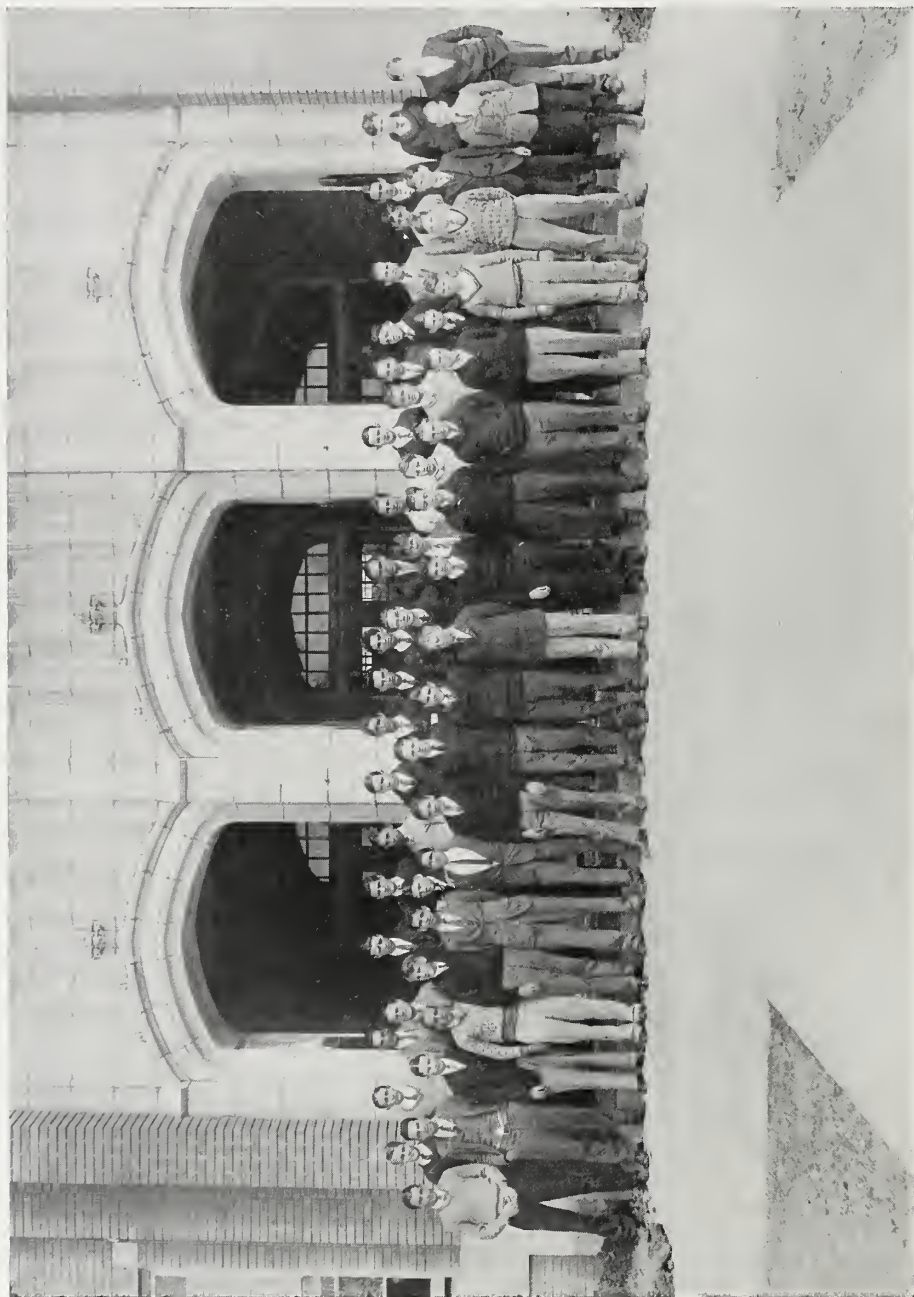

At the convention of the "League of Women Voters" which convened in Charlotte, Edna Tatum of the Junior class represented all the Girls' Reserves of North Carolina. Edna was chosen the delegate out of all the schools in the state.

The clubs have accomplished much in the past but they are looking forward to greater work the next year as the main purpose is to strive to make the girls of today better Spiritually, Physically, Mentally and Morally.

Y-H-Y

History of Hi-Y

Hi-Y work has been carried on very successfully in Salisbury this year. The organization, as usual, composed of three groups: the Sophomore, the Junior, and the Senior Clubs.

On May 10, 1925, the Sophomore Hi-Y organized with sixteen charter members and with Rev. A. O. Moore as leader. This club had for its course of study "The Life of Christ." The Freshmen Stag and the four C's were probably the only two big programs that were entered by the club, but these two received a hearty cooperation from the Sophomores. A very good baseball team was the boast of the club this year, and the boys look with pride on their string of victories. The following is the list of members: Chapman Crawford, Phillip Peacock, Carson Tatum, Harry Edwards, John Isenhour, Dwight Fink, C. V. Barkley, Gordon Earle, Thomas Fisher, Royden Peamster, Harland Grubb, James Hudson, James Krider, Joe Lyerly, Clement Maupin, Bille McCorkle, Harvey Roseman, James Sparks, Jack Snider, Arnold Snider, Alexander Smoot.

The Junior Hi-Y club held its first meeting Monday, September 21, 1925, and chose as its leader Mr. Story. The Freshman Stag was the first work with which the club had to deal. This treat for the Freshmen was a great success. Next in cooperation with the Seniors, the club held an Induction service for the purpose of bringing into the Hi-Y membership the Sophomore and all other new members of the other two groups. The course of study for the Juniors was "Life Problems and the Bible Study Discussion for High School Boys." This group put much effort in the Four C's campaign this year, and very successfully carried through their portion of the program. The membership of the club is as follows: Joe McCall, Samuel Wiley, Franklin Nail, Gregory Peeler, William Thompson, Page Choate, Eddie Reeves, Roscoe Fisher, Paul Propst, Carl Fisher, Marvin Smith, William Hoyle, Max Drake, Thurston Fox, Harry Gwin.

The Senior Hi-Y met for the first time September 28, 1925. The Rev. Edgar Woods was chosen by a unanimous vote as leader of this group. While the club had no special course of study, Mr. Woods, through his unlimited supply of inspiring talks, brought many helpful ideas to the Seniors. On November 23 the club gave a reception to the football players. On November 30, a week later, old clothes were distributed by the seniors to the poor of the city. Christmas baskets were distributed among the poor Christmas morning. The Induction service next held place and resulted in a great number of new members for all the clubs. The joint banquet at Lexington was held March 19, and was attended by a great number of the members. The four C's Campaign was the last work of the '26 club. The following is the list of members:

David Beaver, Carl Brown, Milton Cooper, Frank Brown, Allan Dobey, James Foil, Linwood Foil, Elwood Goodson, James Fletcher, Dodd Linker, Harold McCurdy, Ralph Mulder, Francis Price, Arthur Reynolds, Bob Murphy, Philip Sowers, James Warlick, Louie Watkins.
